

Colour, say and write

Say it. Trace it. Try it. Colour or paint.

Make the letter

kite

Adult: Draw the kite's tall stem down and return to its middle. Slant up to the upper corner, come back to the middle and slant down towards the lower corner.

Say the sound: With a small smile and a flat tongue, move your tongue up towards the top of your mouth for /k/ in kite, the same sound as c in cat.

Trace it. Then try a few of your own.

Picture word: trace it if you like.

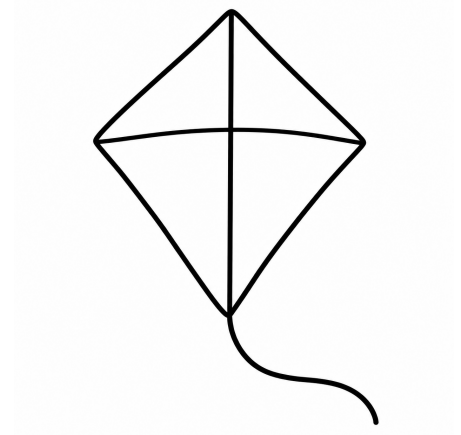

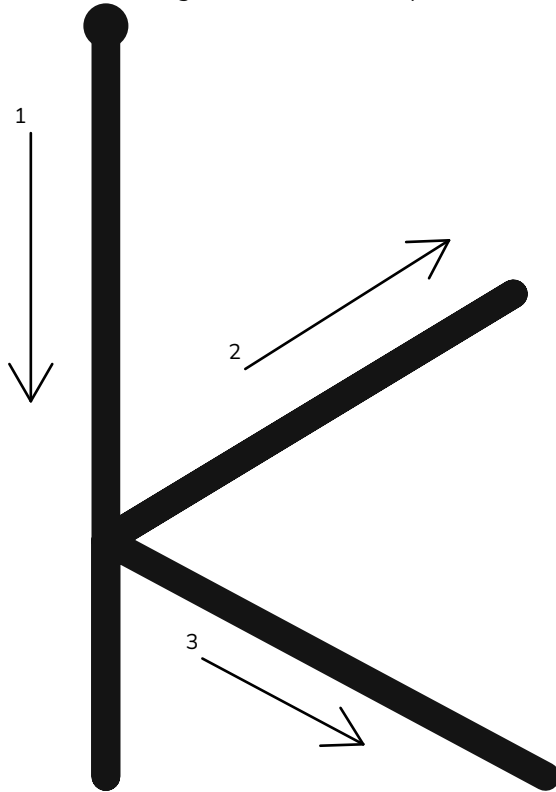

kite

Copy the word here if you want to.

Large lowercase k

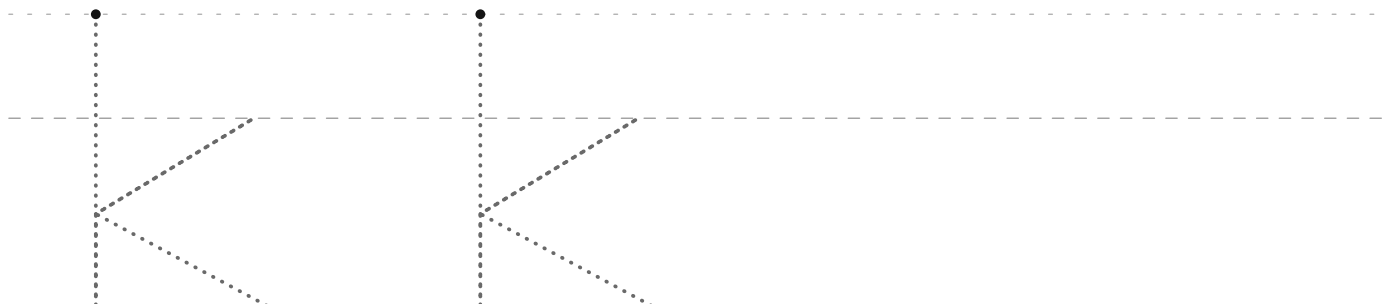

Follow the arrows with a finger. Trace k, then try it.

Draw the tall stem down and return to its middle. Slant up, retrace to the same junction, then slant down and out.

Say kid, kit and kite with an adult. They begin with /k/. The picture words are vocabulary, not a reading test.

Trace it. Then try a few of your own.

Find lowercase k

Circle or colour each k. An adult can name the letters.

Look for two slants meeting the tall stem of k. h has a rounded shoulder; l has no slants. Find six k letters.

Trace it. Then try a few of your own.

k in little words

Say the words together. Trace or copy only if you like.

Adult: kid means a child; kit is a set of art materials. Name the kite too. Find initial k; copying is optional.
